Chinese Village LLC is proud to offer a Chinese Language and Culture Summer Camp this year. Let your children gain a full, in-depth experience in the ancient culture and widely-spoken language of China. Children will be actively engaged everyday in writing characters, singing songs, dancing and playing games. All stories, arts and crafts, as well as fun outdoor activities will encompass traditions of China and be taught in Mandarin Chinese. This is the perfect balance of learning and fun that will introduce children and the whole family to the fascinating Chinese language and culture.

Program description:

These camps are suitable for the kids age 4 to 11, with little or no prior experience in language.

Session 3 PM camp is special designed for middle and high school students. Come and explore the Chinese language and culture in depth and broad views through history, customs and philosophy.

Each session has its own special features and be taught by different teachers and assistants. All teachers are native Chinese speakers and familiar with both Chinese and English language and culture and trained to use structured activities to facilitate language immerse.

Children will be divided into 2 age groups (age 4-7 and age 8-11) during certain of activities. The summer camp will provide intensive, interactive and fun based language environment therefore boosting the children language acquisition capability and culture awareness.
